

EXTRA WORDS

Verbs of movement

With the help of the examples on the right translate the verbs of movement in the left-hand side column:

To dash	She dashed into the room, grabbed her bag and ran out again.
To wander	He spent hours wandering the streets before eventually heading back home.
To stride	He was so bad-tempered he strode across the room without speaking to me.
To march	He saluted the soldiers that were marching past him.
To toddle	The kid toddled to his parents who were overjoyed.
to stagger	He had drunk so much that he could only just about stagger home.
To tiptoe	She tiptoed into the bedroom as she didn't want to wake him up.
To crawl	Before toddling a baby crawls.
To sneak To creep	That night he sneaked out of his dormitory and crept down to the kitchen.
To leap	She leaped / leapt over the fence.
To stumble	The man was drunk and he stumbled on the bottom step.
To slide	Kids love sliding across the ice.
To skid	The car skidded off the road and into a ditch.
To hobble	The old man hobbled past them on crutches.
To limp	He limped off the field with a foot injury.
To prowl	A suspicious stranger was seen prowling the streets of the town.
To trample	There was a small fence to stop people trampling all over the grass.
To skip	She was so thrilled by the news she skipped happily down the path.
To shuffle	The old man shuffled to the gate, leaning on his stick.