

EXTRA WORDS

Verbs of sight

Translate the verbs of sight in these examples:

1 The boy glanced at his watch and went on working.
2 She stood there staring at him in amazement.
3 From the corner of my eye I glimpsed a man running out of a store.
4 He glared at her accusingly.
5 The beach was full of teenage boys who had come to ogle the girls in their bikinis.
6 I blinked as I came into the sunlight.
7 She stood there, gaping at me, too shocked to speak.
8 She frowned at him disapprovingly.
9 The beauty of the garden was a pleasure to behold . (literary word)
10 Tom was caught peeping through the keyhole.
11 The two enemies were eyeing each other from head to toe.
12 He stood on top of the hill scanning the horizon.
13 He was peering through the window trying to make out the road.
14 He failed to spot the turning and had to come back on his tracks.
15 Unhappy with her reaction he kept scowling at her.
16 He gazed at her admiringly.
17 You'd better watch him this time to avoid problems.
18 The girl glowered at the man who had dared to speak to her.	